

Jennifer Embree

Jennifer Embree began her life working with animals at the age of 13 when she first starting taking riding lessons, which eventually led to her working professionally as a groom, instructor, and exercise rider for various barns, including a stint working for Ian Millar. When she returned to Nova Scotia she began taking classes with her shepherd mix to help with her dog's reactivity. In 2011 she started agility with her new dog Mufaasa, and has been hooked ever since. She now competes her with two rescue dogs and teaches agility, while continuing to attend seminars and classes from such top trainers as Jenny Damm, Denis Fenzi, Jess Martin, Jouni Orenius, and Silvia Trkman.