

Kim O'Neill

Kim O'Neill lives in Calgary, Alberta with her 5 dogs. She has 3 Kelpies (Razor, Jagged and Spike), a Border Collie (Blade) and a Miniature Australian Sheppard (Velcro) all who have or will compete in agility. She has been involved with AAC agility since 2014 when she attended her first competition. Since then, she has become a member of Calgary Agility Association and Rocky Mountain Agility. She previously sat on the board with both clubs and was the treasurer for Calgary Agility Association for 5 years. Her education and work experience includes many years of team work and balancing budgets. She is looking forward to contributing further to AAC.
