

APPLICATION: PRE-QUALIFIER EVENT

To be eligible for entry in the Agility Association of Canada's (AAC) National Championships a dog must have qualified. If your dog did not qualify at the assigned Regional Championships, or an alternative Regional Championships the owner/handler may submit an application to attend the limited-entry pre-qualifying event.

Selection criteria for the Pre-Qualifier event is outlined in the AAC 2017 National Championship Rules and Guidelines, Section 1.1. National Rules and Guidelines 2017.

To apply for the Pre-Qualifier, the applicant should be prepared to provide documentary evidence to fully describe the condition that prevented competing at the Regional event, as well as proof that the condition existed at the time of the applicable Regional event.

It is the applicant's responsibility to acquire the required documentation and submit it with their Pre-Qualifier entry.
